

Ryan W. Regal

6610-205th Street East
Bradenton, FL 34211
(941) 545-1422
rw.regal@gmail.com

Objective: To teach Finance as an adjunct professor at the University of South Florida Sarasota-Manatee.

Academics:

- Bachelor of Arts (Politics), 1975
Wake Forest University
- Master of Business Administration, 2005
University of South Florida
Recipient: "The Paul Searls Webecke Outstanding MBA Graduate Student Award"
- Non-Degree Course work (FIN 6246,6425,6934), 2011
University of South Florida

Instructional experience:

- Junior Achievement Consultant in Economics at Southeast High School (Bradenton, FL) and Lakewood Ranch High School (Lakewood Ranch, FL), 1997-2006
- Religion instructor Christ Episcopal Church (Bradenton, FL)

Professional experience:

Business owner/operations manager with experience in management, retail sales, logistics, finance, human resources, technology, marketing, purchasing, regulatory compliance, and audits. Committed to and capable of optimizing resources within time and budget restraints. Value driven and hands-on with a focus on collaboration and problem solving as a means for furthering organizational success.

Highly organized, intellectual, fair, and consistent with a sense of humor. (Manatee Oil Distributors, Inc.), 1976-2009

Community Service:

- Junior Achievement Economics Consultant
- Hernando DeSoto Historical Society (past Director)
- Lakewood Ranch Lacrosse Club (past President)
- Sertoma Club of Bradenton (past President)
- Christ Episcopal Church, Bradenton, FL (Verger)

References: Will be available on request